LONG-TERM CARE

Under current law, the Board of Aging and Long-Term Care operates the long-term care ombudsman program. The board serves aged and disabled individuals. The ombudsman investigates complaints of improper care in long-term care facilities and advocates for resolution of those complaints. The ombudsman has authority to access residents and records of residents of nursing homes, community-based residential facilities, adult family homes, hospices, facilities providing care under continuing care contracts, and swing beds in hospitals.

This bill gives the ombudsman authority to investigate complaints of and advocate for residents of residential care apartment complexes.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1

SECTION 1. 16.009 (1) (em) 7. of the statutes is created to read:
16.009 (1) (em) 7. A residential care apartment complex, as defined in s. 50.01
